Lothian and Borders Police

Oxgangs Police Station

February 2004

Dear Watchmembers,

Welcome to this months edition of the newsletter.

The good news this month is that there has been vast reduction in car crime with only one car broken into and one stolen. Sadly the same cannot be said for vandalism where fifteen incidents were recorded. As you will see many of the incidents were within the Buckstone estate where there has also been an increase in youth problems, especially during the school holidays.
